The new Opencast website

Daniel Ebbert & Sonia Tavani

It all started …

... with a famous ~~talk~~ rant.

Opencast Summit 2020 - Do we need a new website? Can we afford one? - Lars Kiesow, Olaf A. Schulte

Changes

Suggested solutions.

Changes made

- Moved from GitHub to Wordpress.com

- Drastically cut down and simplified the content

- Link to dynamic content whenever possible

Changes to come

- Connect the news on the website with the Announcements mailing list

- Automatically post news about new releases

- Provide a separate page for all Opencast community videos (webmeeting recordings, summit recordings, webinars)
